

WASHINGTON
TASTING
ROOM MAGAZINE

EDITOR'S CHOICE, 91-95 POINTS

2013 Estate Red Mountain Reserve

“Scott Williams helped plant the first grapes ever planted on Red Mountain in 1975. This estate blend of all six Bordeaux varietals (includes Carmenère) shows impeccable balance and finesse, with cassis, cherry, plum and red currant flavors interwoven with fine tannins on a velvet-smooth frame. Concentrated and rich, with mineral and spice lingering on the aftertaste.”